

G
GOLDEN BOON

The Golden-Eyed Traveller

The traveller appeared after dusk, dry-cloaked despite the rain, and asked only for a place by the fire. Through the night, a melody moved through the sleeping settlement. By morning, the season's weariness had loosened its grip.

EFFECT

When revealed, after the normal Player Turns phase this round, resolve 1 additional Player Turns phase before Phase Four. Do not seed or reveal Encounter Cards, remove Arrival timers, resolve end-of-round effects, or advance the Round Timer during this additional phase. Each player takes 1 additional turn with the normal action allowance. Then discard this card.

Golden Boon: extra reveal. Does not count toward standard Encounter reveals.

GOLDEN BOON

The Golden Signet Ring

The ring came from a collapsed cairn beneath the mines, its gold untouched by age. When raised, it seemed to remind roads, walls, and foundations of older orders. For a moment, the settlement obeyed memory.

EFFECT

When revealed, choose up to 5 placed tiles. Remove those tiles, then place each chosen tile into a legal empty map space. Chosen tiles may use spaces vacated by other chosen tiles. Ignore adjacency and reachability restrictions, but all terrain restrictions still apply. Multi-hex tiles must cover only empty, legal hexes. Chosen tiles keep Strain, Supported, upgrade state, and all tokens. Recalculate connectivity and Overstrained effects immediately. Then discard this card.

Golden Boon: extra reveal. Does not count toward standard Encounter reveals.

The Golden Scroll

The scroll arrived sealed in gold thread. Its ink shifted between readings: maps into letters, warnings into opportunities, forgotten names into doors. I recorded it as possibility, not prophecy.

EFFECT

When revealed, each player may discard any number of standard Encounter Cards from their own hand. For each card discarded this way, that player draws 1 random standard Encounter Card from the game box into their hand. Golden Boons cannot be drawn this way. If there are not enough standard Encounter Cards in the box, draw as many as possible. Then discard this card.

Golden Boon: extra reveal. Does not count toward standard Encounter reveals.

The Golden Vial

The vial lay sealed in golden wax within the hollow roots of a dead pale tree. Its liquid caught the light like dawn held still. Those who carried it found storms softening, paths opening, and distance less certain of itself.

EFFECT

When revealed, keep this card face-up near the Stewards Board. For the rest of the game, once per round during any player's turn, that player may take the Travel to a Disconnected Tile action without spending an Action. All normal destination and placement rules still apply.

Golden Boon: extra reveal. Does not count toward standard Encounter reveals.
